

Men's Head Coach Thames Rowing Club

Thames Rowing Club invites applications for the role of Men's Head Coach.

Winners – Wyfold Challenge Cup 2003

Winners – Wyfold Challenge Cup 2006

Thames is one of the largest clubs in the UK, with a men's squad ranging from complete beginners to Henley winners. Almost all are fitting rowing around work. The club has had growing success in recent years with wins in the Wyfold Challenge Cup at Henley Royal Regatta in 2003 and 2006 and three other appearances in Henley finals.

The successful candidate will:

- Design and implement a successful strategy for the Thames men's squad;
- Develop the success of the men's squad up to the highest levels of domestic and international club competition;
- Ensure a smooth pathway from novice to elite club rowing;
- Manage a proactive Talent ID programme that attracts athletes to the Club.

The position requires availability to coach at weekends, plus on some weekday mornings and evenings.

The club is willing to consider applications to undertake the role on either a full-time or a part-time basis. Salary is negotiable based on skills and experience.
